State Excise Police Recently Honored at National Conference in Dallas

On Friday, August 14, 2009, the Indiana State Excise Police were honored at an awards ceremony in Dallas, TX. The award was presented at the closing ceremonies of the 2009 National OJJDP/ Underage Drinking Enforcement Center National Conference. The award recognized the agency's "innovation and perseverance in reducing underage drinking" for their work with the Survey For Alcohol Compliance program that initiated in 2007. Three members of the agency also had the opportunity to attend the National Liquor Law Enforcement Association's conference that was held in conjunction with the UDETC conference.
